contest today!

Announcing a contest to make new, handmade blankets that feature hearts or other Valentine's Day colors & themes. Any type of blanket will do—single-layer fleece, quilted, crochet or knit! Note: We especially need medium size or larger blankets presently. Blankets will be voted on and one winner will receive a $10 JOANN's gift certificate.

You can also try your hand at making some tiny heart scent "blankets" for infants in the NICU at Tufts Children's Hospital. Whoever makes the most of these scent hearts will win a $10 JOANN's gift certificate.

Participate in either, or both parts of the That's Sew Heartfelt! Contest with a traditional blanket, or the small scent hearts.

How to enter your blanket(s):

1. Email a photo of each blanket to NorthShoreProjectLinus@gmail.com by Feb. 28.
2. Drop off your blanket at any of our participating locations at your convenience (see web site for list).
3. Voting will take place the following week. Winner will be notified by email on March 6.

How to enter your Scent Hearts:

1. Follow the official pattern (see web site) and drop off or mail all hearts only to the chapter assistant noted, Ellen Scheiner, by Feb. 28. Note: All scent heart entries postmarked by Feb. 28 will be considered.
2. Hearts will be counted the following week and the winner who made the most hearts will be notified by email on March 6.
